It's ok to be a beginner - but be sure to leverage your Superpowers. Realize that your current natural skills and talents (which I like to call Superpowers, as mentioned in The Beginner's Guide to Being Congruent) are transferrable in more ways than you think. Maybe you stay in your sales job because you're great at building rapport, relating to people's needs and closing deals, but you happen to be selling snake oil and you hate it.
