Behind the Polaroid SX770 Picture this: at the Polaroid company meeting in 1972, founder Edwin Land stepped onto the stage, pulled a camera out of his jacket pocket, and took five instant photos in just ten seconds. That camera was the Polaroid SX-70, and it was the camera that made truly instant photography possible for the first time ever.

I have for sale one of my SX-70 Polaroid cameras. I've enjoyed using these camera's for a few years now but I have to many to keep. This one has been recently re skinned in real wood veneer and tested with film. Everything appears to be functioning as it should, please see a recent photo taken with this camera. It's in good, clean condition for its age but given its age please expect some marks.
