The History of the Taj Mahal - ThoughtCo

Taj Mahal was built by the Emperor of the Mughal dynasty, Shah Jahan in the memory of his wife Mumtaz. The time duration to construct this monument was almost 20 years. There is also a myth that Shah Jahan was planning to build a replica of Taj Mahal- a black one but there are no concrete pieces of evidence found which could ensure such rumors.

What is the significance of Taj Mahal?

Unlike the Feast of Roses (which should be preceded in reading by the Twentieth Wife), this one stands on its own. It begins with the death of Mumtaz Mahal, the woman for whom the Taj Mahal was built, and ends with her husband's death. In between, the life of their eldest daughter, Jahanara, is told with love and historical accuracy.
